Labour Party: A scatter plot showing the relationship between Jewish population (percent) and change in vote share (percent). There is a downward trend indicated by a line.

Conservative Party: A scatter plot showing the relationship between Jewish population (percent) and change in vote share (percent). The data points are scattered with no clear trend.

Liberal Democrats: A scatter plot showing the relationship between Jewish population (percent) and change in vote share (percent). There is an upward trend indicated by a line.